8 DECLARATION

I hereby declare that the above particulars and answers are correct and complete to the best of my knowledge and belief and that I have not withheld any information which might influence the decision of underwriters in regard to the proposal (and on any supplementary information provided) and I agree that this proposal and declaration shall form the basis of the contract of insurance between me underwriters if a policy is issued.

It is important to remember that failure to disclose all material facts (ie. facts which an insurer would regard as likely to influence acceptance and assessment of the proposal) may invalidate the insurance. If you are in any doubt as to whether facts are material, you should disclose them. In the event of insurance being effected, it is important to consider this form in conjunction with the conditions of the policy as the latter may contain exclusions, warranties or provisions, which override anything, stated on this form.

Simon Winter Marine Limited has appropriate data protection entries on the Data Protection Register for its data processing activities as required by the Data Protection Act 1998.

Insurers reserve the right to decline any proposal and no cover is in force until confirmed by insurers. Signing this form does not bind the proposer to complete the insurance, but it is agreed that this form shall be the basis of the contract should the insurance be effected. A specimen copy of policy conditions is available either with your quotation or on request. The proposer is advised to keep records of all information supplied to insurers for the purposes of entering into insurance contracts.
